John's Time-Honored Restaurant.
John, as he was familiarly called, and whose name this popular restaurant is honored with, was in and out of the city for years, and was known to all who knew him.
The restaurant, as every one knows, is on the corner of 7th and D streets N. W.

This prominent resort for gentlemen to now controlled by Mr. Charles H. Boker, a new proprietor, and it is kept well up to its high standard of excellence. The restaurant has improved recently, and increased its cater facilities. Nothing is left undone to make its patrons comfortable and satisfied.
His assistants rank high in the art, and are very popular with the gentlemanly elite of the city.

Mr. Louis Boker is ever ready to please and accommodate, as well as his wife, who is known by that name by thousands who used to patronize Boker's old place. Mr. P. D. Dale presides with grace and elegance over the culinary department.

AMUSEMENTS.

Albion's "Bellman."

A big and brilliant audience came out last night to witness the McCall Opera Company at Albion's in Van Buren's opera, "Bellman," for the first time in Washington. The opera possesses merit above the average light opera class in its music, showing the artist's possession of the demands of modern civilization for something to laugh at. De Wolf Hopper as the Heavenly Father, was the star of the evening, and his classic grace and beauty won the audience's heart. His song, "Do You Catch the Idea?" appeared to catch the idea. The First and Second of Meers, D'Angelo and Clippa were funny parts, which they can improve with practice. Mr. Wilkes, Clippa and Marion Manola's Cousins were the serious parts of the opera, and in the action and song were superior.
Laura Joyce-Bell's Travels was presented with verve and with skill, and plump and pretty little Annie Myers, as Archie, received her successes made here in summer opera. The choruses and costumes were good. Again to-night.

The National, J. W. Keene.
A large audience attended the presentation last night, at the National, of Bulwer's five-act play, "Richard III." by Mr.
T. W. Keene, assisted by Mr. Joseph Wheeler and his company. The action and the plot of the play were well considered, and it is safe to conclude, irrespective of critical opinion, that the audience was eminently satisfied with both players and play. Mr. Keene's Richard III. is of the robust type, and there is lacking in it that impalpable yet appreciable quality which characterizes the shrewd and calculating mind in the weak body, but it exhibits many of the virtues of the actor. Mr. Wheeler, as a good actor, and his De Mowat was given in accordance with that mind, and the others in the cast, most of them were deserving of commendation, and throughout the play the stage was kept well in the background. To-night, "Richard III."

Barker's "One of the Finest."
At the Bijou yesterday Gus Williams's comedy-drama, "One of the Finest," was presented to large audiences. Dan Mason assumes the character of the New York policeman, and delineates the part equally as well if not better than did Gus Williams. The play is descriptive of New York life and conditions, and is a very creditable manner.

Kernan's "Weston Brothers." Comedy and farce Company drew good houses to the theatre and evening performances at Kernan's yesterday, and the audience were evidently pleased.
The musical feature is the leading one of the company, and in songs and dances and instrumental performances the exhibition was away up in G. The specialties were less numerous than in some combinations, but not less good, and all around the show is well worth going to see.

The New Association.
A large number of representative business men and citizens of Georgetown met last night at Association Hall and completed the organization of the Citizens' Association of Georgetown. The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. T.
Mitchell, and Mr. F. L. Moore was appointed temporary chairman and W. H.
Manogue acted as secretary. The committee chosen to prepare a constitution made a report through their secretary, Mr. Mayhew Plator. After a few minutes the following constitution was adopted:

Article 1. Title.—This organization shall be known as the Citizens' Association of Georgetown, D. C.

Article 2. Object.—Its object shall be to promote the best interests of Georgetown.

Article 3. Membership.—Any citizen of the town may become a member by signing this constitution and upon the payment of an induction fee of fifty cents, and agreeing to pay monthly dues to the amount of twenty-five cents.

Article 4. Officers and their Duties.—The officers of this association shall be president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, who shall perform the duties usually prescribed for such officers. They shall be elected for one year, and shall hold office until their successors are chosen. In case of vacancy it shall be filled by the unexpected term of the first regular meeting thereafter.

Article 5. Executive Committee.—The Executive Committee shall consist of ten members, of which the officers mentioned in article 4 shall be members and the other six to be elected by the various committees to be appointed hereafter.

Article 6. Meeting.—Annual meeting for the election of officers shall be held hereafter on the first day of May, and regular meetings shall be held monthly on the first Friday in each month, and ten members shall constitute a quorum at all meetings.

Article 7.—The president shall name five members, who shall prove the names of five members for each of the following committees:

1. Streets and Sewers.
2. Hook and Ladder.
3. Harbor, Wharves, Railroads, Steam and Street.

4. Water and Gas.
5. Cemeteries and Sanitary.
6. Business Interests of the Town.

Each of the above committees shall select their own chairman.

Article 8.—Special meetings.—Special meetings may be called at any time, on the written request of five members of this association.

Article 9.—At all regular meetings of this association the report or order of business shall be maintained.

Article 10.—No person shall be allowed to vote who has not paid his initiation fee or who became three months in arrears of his monthly dues.

Article 11.—Any officer or member of the various committees failing to attend three consecutive meetings without good and sufficient cause, shall be considered as having resigned from said committee, and his place shall be filled by said committee.

After the adoption of the constitution, nominations for officers were declared in order, and Messrs. F. L. Moore, J. T.
Mitchell and A. Greenlee were nominated for president. Mr. Moore declined on the score of ill-health and Mr. Mitchell withdrew in favor of Mr. Greenlee, and the latter was unanimously elected. On a call for a speech, Mr. Greenlee thanked the association for the high honor conferred and pledged himself to carry out the duty devolving upon him. The other officers were filled by acclamation as follows: Vice-president, F. L. Moore; secretary, W. H. Manogue; treasurer, Wolf Nodding.

A session of five minutes was taken to allow those present to sign the constitution and pay the initiation fee, and a large number availed themselves of the opportunity.

On reconvening the newly-elected president took the chair, and appointed Messrs. J. T. Mitchell, S. T. Brown, W.
Curtis, R. B. Tenney, J. G. Waters, and Richard Cropley as a committee to select the members to be appointed on the committees of the association.

The meeting then adjourned to meet again on Friday, its first regular monthly meeting.

Notes About Town.
A dead colored female infant was found by some laborers while digging in a new house on College Branch, the new cut road. It was brought to the station by Officer Sutherland. The coroner pronounced a case of premature birth.

MONOPOLIES,
SYNDICATES,
TRUSTS,
FASHION.

And many other supposed evils that concentrate the wealth of the nation into a few channels as possible, thereby making the rich richer and the poor poorer, are the order of the day. The only trust we take any stock in is the good judgment of the people that we are offering them the very best of Clothing for Men and Boys at the very lowest prices, and mind our own business.

No house in the District displays a line of Clothing for Men and Boys such as we do, possessing the excellence of material, fit, style and finish at such prices as we name. All goods marked in plain figures, and one price all, is law in our house.

Our line of Spring Overcoats is yet complete, while we must admit that we have disposed of a great many so far this season, more than anticipated. It is the style, and that does the work for us.

Myriads of Shirt Waists for the Boys, ranging from 25c. upward, laundered and unlaundered. Anything for less than 25c. is not worth having. For that reason we have none for less than 25c.

We have this season an immense line of Men's Woolen Shirts for all purposes, at prices that will make one stare.
